

Our Speaker:

Major Shane Coyne

He will be promoted to Lt. Colonel on August 27, 2010

Maj. Coyne is assigned to the Center for Character and Leadership Development at the United States Air Force Academy and has served in numerous capacities in the Center since 1998. He is currently the Director of Leaders in Flight Today: A seminar for Cadets focusing on Servant Leadership. He deployed in 2005 to Camp Victory, Baghdad, Iraq where he was assigned to a 3,500 member Detainee Operations Joint Task Force responsible for the care and custody of over 15,000 detainees to include Saddam Hussein, his former regime elements and all high value Al Qaeda detainees. On the civilian side, Maj. Coyne is a Deputy Chief with the El Paso County Sheriff's Office Wildland Fire Crew where he is charged with training and leading fire crews on wildfires in the Pike's Peak Region. He is also on call for large wildfire response nationwide and has been dispatched throughout the country. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Kansas State University, a Master's in Public Administration from the University of Colorado and a Character Education Certificate from the University of San Diego. He currently resides in Manitou Springs, Colorado.

Our Topics:

Friday night: Does the world around us seem destined for breakthrough or disaster? We'll get acquainted and begin to unpack our perceptions of the vast issues and moral decay facing today's society and how that relates to the future, being a leader and a man.

Saturday morning: Without Integrity Nothing Works: Most see Integrity as an important value, but its ability to vastly increase workability and performance has become inaccessible in our corrupt culture. The associated costs are enormous. We'll come face to face with what it means to live in Integrity and how this shows up in the places we live and our relationship with God.

Saturday night: Serving Leadership: What does it mean when you put two seemingly opposing words together? We'll start with a secular view of what many call the world's most powerful leadership principle and then examine the ultimate example of a Serving Leader in the life of Jesus Christ.

Sunday morning: We will spend time together reflecting on being a man of integrity, being a leader who serves others and making commitments to stand and allow God to powerfully use us in the spheres of influence he has entrusted to us.
