

Growing Together as Authentic Men

Our Topics

Friday night: Leave No Stone Unturned

- Truth and transparency are essential building blocks to the foundation of manhood. This requires a willingness to examine, pray for and support each other in the freeing yet painful pursuit of truth in our lives. During this time we will test the truths contained in Psalm 103 and apply them individually to our journey.

Saturday morning: The Posture of Power

- During this session we will explore our responsibilities as men, sons, brothers, husbands and fathers. Critical to this exploration is the posture of humility which shapes our actions and responses. Ephesians 3:14-4-2 will guide our discussion as we assess our current efforts to excel in these respective roles.

Saturday night: The Onslaught of Evil

- Indispensable to our efforts in becoming godly men and leaders is discernment. Being alert and exhibiting self-control, coupled with discernment, will keep us from being neutralized by the devil. Failure to heed the warnings in 1 Peter 5:5-11 will lead to our demise.

Sunday morning: Marking the Future by Celebrating the Past

- If men seek to be successful in their quest to be godly men they must remember their purpose and goal. Celebrating the Lord's Supper together will help us do so, as well as distinguish the seriousness of our efforts. In addition communion will mark our unity and commitment to any specific directives He has revealed to us through the conference.

“Be on the alert, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love” 1 Corinthians 16:13-14 (New American Standard)
