THANK YOU

Dear Church Family, Thank you! Thank you so much for your outpouring of prayer, cards, encouragement, sympathy and love to us at this very difficult time of Diego's passing. We have felt God's peace with us each day. Thanks also to Pastor Dave for a great memorial service, honoring our Lord and the fun memories of times with Diego. Thanks also to the ladies who helped serve us lunch. We appreciate your continued prayers for our family.

~~Love in Christ, Ron & Gail Gallaway & family

BED BUILDING FOR FOSTER FAMILIES

Just bring yourself and a whole lot of energy! Saturday, April 6, 8am-4pm at workshop of Kurt Martin. Call/Text Kurt Martin to reserve spot, limit of 5 amazing guys.

BLESSING WORKERS

We are ready to roll out the next stage of our advent conspiracy project. If you enjoy using your gifts of hospitality or encouragement, we would love to have your help. We will be loving on the St Francis workers in the Hays office. They have a never-ending job helping kids in the foster care system and families connected as foster homes or families needing some help. They work long hours and see many unpleasant circumstances day in and day out. We would like to let them know that we support them and are praying for them and our community. There are several areas you can help with such as planning, food, cards of encouragement or holiday help. An on-line sign up contains all the categories and is available on our web-site or by the link below. For more information or questions, you can contact Michele Eiland. NORTH OAK COMMUNITY CHURCH
TOPIC: THE GREAT STORY OF THE BIBLE

PASTOR KEN EDIGER
MARCH 17, 2019

DIVINE PATIENCE!

1 Kings 12:1-2 Kings 25:30 (Pew Bible pages 248-282)
2 Kings 25:1-21 (Pew Bible page 281)

God's Patience...and its limits...

The Epic Story Continues...

Because of his great grace God always gives people enough time to turn to him.

Because of his justice God's patience toward sinners will run out eventually.

TAKING IT HOME...
